

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

South Bend, Ia.—Architect W. W. Schneider and Contractor Edward Solarek held responsible for collapse of building Jan. 3 and death of 4 persons in report by investigating committee.

London.—Result of rate war, Cunard and White Star steamship lines announced reductions.

Quebec, Que.—5 persons burned to death, 1 probably fatally injured at Notre Dame Rosaire. Kitchen stove exploded in home of Jos. Robin.

New York.—Lucius M. Littauer, ex-congressman, and brother, of firm of Littauer Bros., indicted charged with smuggling.

Seattle.—Pacific steamship Sofia reported ashore in Alert Bay. Steamer Alki reported taking off wrecked steamship's passengers.

Milwaukee.—2 dead, 2 in serious condition result of gas escaping from stove in home of John Bagemhl.

New York.—Battleship Arkansas quarantined. 1 seaman has diphtheria; 17 have sore throats.

Little Rock, Ark.—Supreme court affirmed 5 year sentence against J. D. Farrell, blind medium, charged with causing suicide pact resulting in death of Rhoda Carter and Mrs. M. C. Turner by pretending to receive advice from spirits.

Trenton, Mo.—Conductor Frank Neal killed, 3 trainmen injured when Rock Island engine jumped track and rolled over.

Amsterdam.—58 children, 16 women, 1 man killed in moving picture theater. Trampled in panic when film exploded.

Delta, Ia.—Albert Taylor, farmer, shot wife twice, shot himself and cut throat with razor. Dead. Wife may die. Quarrel.

Milwaukee, Wis.—2,000 unemployed laborers put to work cleaning streets of heavy snow.

Madrid.—Lieut. Maximoramos, military aviator, fell 1,000 feet. Killed. Aeroplane turned turtle.

Fort Worth, Tex.—Tom Lee, negro, convicted of killing another negro, prayed in courtroom for everyone present half an hour.

Liverpool, Eng.—4 dead and 8 seriously injured by explosion aboard Cunarder Mauretania.

New York.—Bottles containing liquor with as much as 2 per cent alcohol will be labeled with red skull and bones if law urged by "dry" forces is passed.

New York.—Henry Blossom, actor and playwright, slipped while dancing and broke his leg. Says no more tang in the tango for him.

Washington.—Sec'y of War Garrison decided Colorado yule marble will be used in $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial here.

Washington.—South Dakota law forcing railroads to pay double actual damage from fires started by sparks from locomotives declared valid by supreme court.

Washington.—Anticipating renewal of hostilities at Tampico, Admiral Fletcher sent supply ship Culgoa to that port with supplies for refugees.

St. Louis.—Attempt to wreck Iron Mountain southbound fast mail frustrated by engineer.

Salt Lake, Utah.—Repetition of yesterday's avalanche which swept down mountainside and killed three, feared.

Boston.—Nicholas Kissel jumped from third story window in fire with 11-months-old baby in his arms. Dropped baby. Will die. Kissel and two sister-in-laws seriously injured.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Eight miners injured when they fell with cage in Sandford coal mine.

New York.—After playing Santa Claus to 17,000 children last Christmas, Paul Henkel, Prop. Henkel's chop house, filed petition in bankruptcy.

Baltimore, Md.—Grace Swank, 28, killed, five others seriously hurt when touring car crashed into tree.